Do you wish to become a member of our parish? We welcome you! Please contact the pastor or the parish office.

Dear parishioners,

Dispensation Announcement

Archbishop Joseph Naumann has announced in last week's Leaven that dispensation from attending Mass will be lifted on the Feast of The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ (Corpus Christ) which is the weekend of June 5-6 in the Archdiocese of Kansas City, KS. The dispensation will still be in place for the elderly, those who are immune-compromised, those who are sick, etc. The decision comes as COVID-19 vaccines have become increasingly available and parishes across the archdiocese have been welcoming parishioners back in increasing numbers.

As Catholics, Sunday Mass is not only an obligation but a great privilege and should never be missed without a good reason. We are blessed that the doors of our churches are open, that Masses and other services are being offered and that normal Catholic life has resumed. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated in making our parish church a safe place for worship and a place of welcome for all.

Hall Rentals

Our Parish Hall will be open for activities after our Church Picnic weekend which is June 26-27. As covid is NOT completely behind us, all bookings are subject to Covid updates & County guidelines. Please contact Mary Beth (785 -294-1131) for Hall Rentals.

Thank you! - Fr. Regie

33 Days to Morning Glory

Join us for A Do-It-Yourself Retreat to renew & deepen your devotion to Mother Mary using 33 Days to Morning Glory book by popular author & speaker Fr. Michael Gaitley MIC. Starting on May 10 and ending on June 12 the Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Books are available at Soul Provider, Seneca. There will be weekly meetings to share insights within our small groups. To join a group, please contact Marsha Korber (336-1632) or Roxie Schmitz (336-1108).

God bless all of our wonderful mothers who sacrifice themselves all year for their families and parish community! May their lives be filled with His love!!

Feast of Faith (The Creed)

Following the readings and the homily, we stand together and say or sing the Creed, our profession of faith. The Creed is a solemn statement of belief, a “rule of faith” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 67). It states the core of what we believe about God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The language of the Creed is knotty and difficult at times, precisely because its purpose is to express with precision what we believe about God. The Creed that we pray most often, the Nicene Creed, came out of the earliest ecumenical councils: Nicea in 325 and Constantinople in 381. It originated in a time of great controversy about the divinity of Christ, and thus the longest section of the Creed relates to Christ, truly human and truly God.

The Creed is both communal and personal: it is “we,” but it is also “I.” In the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, it is only after listening to the teaching of the Church and professing faith in the Holy Trinity that the candidate is admitted to the sacraments. So it is every Sunday. We listen to the word, we profess our faith, and then we come to the altar.

CE, 4 hours CFP & recommended for 4 hours CPE accounting credits.

The Presence of the Holy Spirit

We have a unique episode in the Acts of the Apostles today. A whole roomful of people are baptized with the Holy Spirit before they are baptized with water! The verb used—“the Holy Spirit ‘fell’ on them” (Acts 10:44)—is characteristic of the way the Spirit works throughout the book of Acts: powerful and surprising. Though this “baptism” is not the normative way the New Testament describes baptism, it is still a good reminder today that the Holy Spirit is not controlled by whether or not we pour water, but rather that our sacramental signs reveal the presence of the Spirit at work among us. And we have a double reinforcement of how this work is accomplished from a Letter and a Gospel bearing John's name. It is love, self-sacrificing and self-giving love, that manifests the Spirit of Jesus in our midst. It is love that is the greatest of commandments. The Spirit is manifested equally through those who live in that love. - © J. S. Paluch Co.

Mary brings us to the heart of her Son

Jesus so loved his mother that his last thoughts on the Cross were of her. He gave her to us as our own mother, and wants us to honor her. “Since Mary is rightly to be regarded as the way by which we are led to Christ, the person who encounters Mary cannot help but encounter Christ likewise” (Mense Maio, Blessed Pope Paul VI).

For her “yes.” Without fully understanding what God intended, she unhesitatingly agreed to become his mother. Her “yes” made it possible for God to become human and be crucified for our salvation. Following her example means saying “yes” to whatever God asks.

For her sacrifice. Wouldn't you be forever grateful to someone who gave up her child so that you and your loved ones might live? Mary loved her amazing child and she experienced unspeakable heartache as he was sacrificed for us. Praying the Rosary regularly reminds us of the life of Jesus and the desire of his Mother to bring us close to his heart.
